

Jewish France / Table of contents

< Jewish France

Edward Drumont

Jewish France

Marpon and Flammarion , 1886(p... tdm).

Contents

Introduction ►

TABLE OF CONTENTS

OF THE FIRST TOME

INTRODUCTION v

BOOK ONE

Common places on the Jew. - The real guy. - The Aryans and the Semites. - Absence of any ideal and any spirit of invention. - The variations of Renan. - A conference in front of Alphonse de Rothschild. - The oppression of the Jew. - Contempt of the goy. - The civilized Jew and the natural Jew. - The Schlossberg. - Impotence of the Jew to understand the high art. - The ignorance of the Jews in the Middle Ages. - The physical constitution. - The Portuguese Jew and the German Jew. - The voice of the race. - Daniel Deronda. - The lost tribes. - Claude's Wife. - The Jews of the Sahara. - Chinese Jews. - The Falachas. - Coningsby. - The solidarity of the Jews. - The screams of the Jew. - Pacifico, Levy de l'Enfida, little Mortara, Victor Noir, Lipmann, Selikowitch. - The Duchess of Berry and Deutz. - A case of conscience judged by Crémieux. - Jewish espionage. - Jewish crime. - A passage from Maxime du Camp. - The celebrities of the robbery. - The associations of Jewish thieves. - The Peschard affair. - Almost absolute impunity granted to Jews today. - The big monopolies. - The Jewish kings. - Rehabilitations. - Levy Bing. - The spelling revolutionaries. - The Jews and the death penalty. - Jewish prostitution. - Hierodules. - Jewish women. - Influence of religious prescriptions. - The number of the Jewish population. Conflicting figures and documents. - The Jew from a nosological point of view - The immunities of the Jew before the plague. - The Jewish smell and Victor Hugo. - Jewish neurosis. - Its particular character. - Romantic existences. - M^{me} de Paiva. - Midhat pasha. - Naquet. - Policy and regeneration of the scalp. - The 1965 article. - The Jewish drama. - The degeneration of the race. - Jewish sadness. - The religious crises of Judaism. - The question of the Messiah. - Israel flagship of nations. - The modern Jew after Renan. - The anti-Semitic campaign. - What must be done will be done.

BOOK SECOND

THE JEW IN THE HISTORY OF FRANCE

I. - From the early days to the final expulsion of 1394 139

The Jews in the Gauls. - Delicate religious sentiments and M. Renan. - The Jews in Brittany. - From arrogantia Judeorum. - The Jews in the Middle Ages. - The accredited lies. - Schools, rabbis and poets. - The Jews driven out of Spain. - Abu Iskak, the patriotic poet. - La Kacida in noun. - Les Juiveries du Midi. - The Albigenian War. - The yellow wheel. - Measures of social salvation. - The Talmud trial. - Elegies. - The auto-da-fé of Troyes and the Lantern. - The Jew according to Michelet. - The Templars and the Jews. - The order of the Temple, corrupted by money, becomes an instrument of the Jews. - Sacrileges. - The Templars and Masonry. - Lepers. - The social war in the XIVth century. - The Semitic movement. - The final expulsion of 1394. - The greatness of France.

II. - From 1394 to 1789 187

The recollection of the Jew after the expulsion of 1394. - The great silence. - Kabbalah. - Reuchlin. - The impression of the Talmud. - Reform. - Nostradamus. - Concini. - Lopez - The Jews in Holland. - Rembrandt's world. - The Jews in England. - Cromwell and Manasseh. - The drama of Victor Hugo. - The four Jewish families of the Paris of Louis XIV. - The Jews of Metz. - The protection of the Brancas. - The Jews of Comtat. - Good advice from a rabbi. - The Papal Avignon and Mistral. - The Jews of Bordeaux. - Montaigne and Alexandre Dumas. - The Princess of Baghdad. - The Maranas. - Efforts of the Jews to enter Paris. - The request of the merchants and traders of Paris. - The Jewish golden spider, die judische goldspinne. - Voltaire and the Jews. - The two agents. - Voltaire financier. - Ignorance of the XVIIIth century Jews. - The Jewish colony of Paris. - Peixotto. - The first Jewish cemetery. - Louis XVI and the Jews. - The latent Jewish movement. - Freemasonry. - The expulsion of the Jesuits. - The disguised Jews: Law, the count of Saint-Germain, Cagliostro. - The hatred of the Jews against Marie-Antoinette. - The Jew Angelucci and Beaumarchais. - Marie-Thérèse and the Jews. - The Necklace case. - Illuminism. - The Saint Jean de la Candeur lodge. - The Duke of Orleans, Grand Master of Freemasonry, is an ally of the Jews. - The Passion of Louis XVI. - The Academy of Metz. - Father Grégoire. - The Jews and the Coustituante. - Emancipation. - The old regime and the current regime. - The new Sinai.

III. - The Revolution and the First Empire 289

The Jew during the Revolution. - David and Marat. - Theft of the Garde-Meuble. - Jewish tampering and the Directory. - Napoleon I^{er} Was Semite? - The Empire and Freemasonry. - The great Sanhedrin. - The noble homage paid by the Jews to the Papacy and to the Christian Clergy. - Ingratitude of the Jew as soon as he has been the master. - Outrages upon Pius IX. - What should have been done in 1806. - The opinion of Portalis. - The Jewish invasion. - Repressive measures. - The decree of 1808. - Obligation imposed on Jews to take a name. - Jewish names. - Mayer, Meyer and Maier. - The census of Jews under Napoleon Ist. - Marshal Ney and the Jews. - Rupture of the Jews with Napoleon. - Rothschild after Waterloo. - A mistake by Michelet.

IV. - The Restoration and the July Monarchy 331

The liquidation account. - The advent of the Rothschilds. - The Restoration remains foreign to any feeling of justice and foresight. - French bankers are conspiring against themselves. - The Orleans family and the love of money. - Rothschild is Louis-Philippe's real minister. - Toussenel's masterpiece.

- The Jewish kings of the time. - Saint-Simonism. - Financial philosophy. - The Pereire brothers. - The death of a shoemaker. - The last protests of the Aryan spirit against the Semitic invasion. - Theater and literature. - Les Chrétienneries de Pétrus Borel. - The contempt of the Duke of Orleans for the Jews.

V. - The Second Republic and the Second Empire 361

Crémieux and Goudchaux in power. - Rothschild saved from bankruptcy. - France is changing Jews. - The reign of the Jews of the South. - Pereire, Mirès and Solar. - Offensive return of German Jews. - The organization of the war. - The tempter tempted. - Bishop Bauer. - The German Jew is everywhere at the end of the Empire. - The dispatch from the Wolff agency and the declaration of war.

VI. - The government of September 4. - The Municipality. - The Third Republic 381

The Jews of the Government of National Defense. - Picard's austerity. - The continuation of the war. - Spuller the Badois and Steenackers the Belgian. - The two Jewish rulers. - Gambetta and Crémieux. - The intervention of a third Jew. - Jewish spies during the war. - The Jews during the siege. - The entry of the Prussians into Paris - A stock exchange in a camp. - The Parisian worker. - The Municipality. - Simon Mayer and the column of the Grande Armée. - Like the men of the Restoration, the conservatives of the Assembly of Versailles are foreign to any feeling of justice. - The repression is both relentless and unjust. - The talisman of small papers. - The customs of high democracy. - The Catholics are stupidly the instrument of the hatred of the men of September 4th. - The Duc de Broglie and his ignorance of reality. - The Jewish cure in Germany and France. - Paris, depopulated by the Commune, is repopulated by the Jews. - The fake Alsatians. - The Jews take the leadership of the republican movement. - The Parisian trade manifesto. - The Castries and the Sina. - The ideas of Count d'Arnim. - An insolence of the Baroness de Rothschild. - The embarrassment of M. Decazes. - The reestablishment of the Monarchy. - The Comte de Chambord did not want to reign. - May 16. - The government's lack of energy. - Fourtou's political testament. - Waddington ambassador of the Jews. - The Berlin Congress. - The Jews in Romania. - France expelled from Egypt. - The reign of Gambetta. - The Jews are preparing a new war against Germany. - The big deal. - The attitude of the Prince of Bismarck. - Roustan enters the scene. - The expedition from Tunisia. - Our poor soldiers. - The Tunisian land credit and the Mustapha fez. - The virtue of Floquet. - Or seek quarrel with Germany again. - The case of the rue Saint Marc. The dangerous madness of Déroulède. - The feast of Sedan. - Gambetta disappears. - The Ferry archi-mime. - The Tonkin. - The search for gold. - Always financial companies. - Lang-Son. - The agreement with the railways. - Senegalese railways. - Absolute impotence of Jewish policy. - The Tohu va bohau talmudique. - The solution of the social question.

BOOK THIRD

GAMBETTA AND HIS COURT	527
------------------------------	-----

A Jewish Emperor. - The origins. - The Gamberlé. - The youth. - The obsession of Morny - Barbey d'Aurevilly and Car. - The trip to the East. - September 4 and the Municipality. - National Defense accounts. - The new layers. - Jewish advertising. - Our illusions. - The Augustiani . - Henri Rochefort. - The anti-gamble campaign. - The meeting in the rue Saint-Blaise. - Fortune contrary . - The critical situation of Gambetta. - The Kings in exile with Daudet. - The death. - A word from a woman of the people. - The brain of a tenor. - The vocabulary of Gambetta. - Hatred of intelligent people. - Contempt for humanity. - A crowning achievement in the Grand Orient.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

OF THE SECOND TOME

BOOK FOURTH

CRÉMIEUX AND THE UNIVERSAL ISRAELITE ALLIANCE	1
--	---

Gordon and Reinach. - The mountebanks . - The role of Crémieux. - The more judaico oath . - Democratic gaieties. - Creamy on December 2nd. - The emancipation of the Algerian Israelites. - The Jew in Algeria. - Wear. - The patriotism of the Jews. - The Algerian uprising. - An Arab hero. - Mokrani. - The Crémieux decree before the Assembly of Versailles. - Fourtou slips away. - The Jews and French law. - Tirman and his Arab expropriation project. - Justice is the best policy. - The Jew Merguich and the poor. - The so-called modern civilization. - The English in India. - The Russians in Asia. - Anti-Semitism in Algeria. - The Algerian press. - The monument of Crémieux. - The Universal Israelite Alliance, its organization, its power. - The Israelite press. - Jews from Germany and Jews from France. - The Alliance Bulletin . - Voluntary contributions. - The schools of the East. - Maurice de Hirsch and Bischoffsheim magnificent at our expense. - The testament of Crémieux. - What is capture and senile dementia in a Christian is an act of intelligent and thoughtful generosity in a Jew.

BOOK FIFTH

The Company of the Management Board and the current Company. - The moral ruins. - The aristocracy. - The place she still holds, - Her native kindness, her absence of hatred, her incurable frivolity. - The need to have fun. - Jewish hunts. - Revenge of the stag. - Hirsch and our officers. - The chartrier of the Trémoille. - Dux . - The Rothschilds. - The victims' ball. - Ferrières. - The Sensitized . - Charity celebrations. - Fantastic accounts. - A modest and surprised journalist. - The cholera at the Tuileries. - The Decorative Arts Lottery. - A benefactor of humanity. - Hecht and his Courbets. - Reinach and his Frans Hals. - The love of the trinket. - Rigging. - Saphira. - The scandals at the races. - Circles and gambling dens. - M. Leconte and the Circle of Parliament. - Military supplies. - The trends. - The budget of an honest woman. - Money misused. - The theories of Father Ludovic. - A favorite of the aristocracy. - Hidden misery. - Sainte Geneviève and the animal ball. - The arbiter of elegance. - Arthur Meyer. - Ernest d'Hervilly and the Duke of Rochefoucauld-Bisaccia. - Jewish journalism. - Blackmail, - Hugelmann, Fiorentino, Eugène Mayer. - A rare book. - Anatole de la Forge or "the gallant man." - Simin. - The people crazy about advertising. - Madame Adam. - Finance at the Academy. - The patriotism of General Boom and the virtue of Madame Cardinal. - General cabotinage. - The Jews and the theater. - The Friend Fritz. - The Americans. - Recognition of the Yankees. - The statue of Bartholdi. - The decoration of an actor. - The Molier circus. - Jewish hotels. - The Monachs . - Mr. Robert de Bonnières and Mr. Paul Bourget. - Mr. Guy de Charnacé and Baron Vampire . - Paris cut-throat. - Malefactors and pimps. - Mr. Macé's book. - Women's breweries. - The complicity of the police. - The workers' crisis. - Trademarks. - The wasteland. - Alcoholism. - Tofana aqua. - The municipal laboratory. - The impunity of wine merchants. - The hunt for the poor. - The ragpickers. - The reconnaissance of the Mont de Piété. - The people are waiting. - Inevitability of the Revolution. - The end of a world.

BOOK SIXTH

JEWISH PERSECUTION

I. - The Freemasons 307

War on Catholics. - The rights of free thought. - Special character of the present persecution. - Jewish origin of Freemasonry. - A transparent allegory. - The Temple of Solomon. - Adopted Freemasonry. - Foolish couplets. - Judith. - The Sons of the Widow. - A persecuting financier. - Cousin, president of the Supreme Council. - The straw man of the Rothschilds, - Guilty weakness of certain Catholics. - How is Masonry recruited. - The distress sign. - Tirard and conversion. - The lightness of a Lowton. - The gold mines of Uruguay - A top-notch Tiler. - A Masonic funeral. - Guillotou the Wise of Greece. - A blow from Venerable's mallet. - The virtues of the mayor of Brest. - A pleasant minister of commerce. - Masonry in prisons. - A sun worshiper.

II. - The Protestants 349

The austere Protestant is not austere. - The false martyrs. - Coligny. - The alleged apostle of tolerance is the most implacable of torturers. - He is trying to deliver Calais to the English. - La Sant-Barthélemy. - The modern Protestant is the Jew's accomplice. - Protestant propaganda. - Kidnappings. - A touching letter. - Elise Ebsen by Daudet. - The Prussian Steeg and its manual. - The Monods. - The Sisters of the Rue de la Lune and the exploits of Winckam. - The variations of our lawyers. - Persecution in death. - The Protestants of the South.

III. - The Jews 379

Hatred of the child. - The bloody sacrifice. - The testimonies of history. - Chaucer and the Canterbury Tales . - Raphaël Lévy. - The assassination of Father Thomas. - Child abductions in the East. - A converted rabbi's book. - The cult of Moloch. - Lack of independence among French scholars. - The Jews at the Academy of Inscriptions. - Heredity. - Outrages of the Jews against the Catholic worship. - Jewish Republicans. - Hendlé. - Isaiah Levaillant. - Jewish witnesses in court. - Moyse, Lisbon and Camille Dreyfus. - Herold. - Edouard Lockroy. - Yesterday and today. - Robespierre's snotty spy . - Paul Bert and his lies. - The Jewish publishers of the Manuals. - Little Jews. - Michel Bréal. - Camille Sée and the law on girls' education. - The Jew and the school. - The denunciations of Charles Laurent. - Mr. and Mrs. Neuburger . - Challemel-Lacour. - Jews and pornography. - The obscene publications. - What we see in the street. - Leo Taxil and the Jews. - The long-suffering of Catholics. - The infamies of the Lantern . - The Talmud of the brook. - Legal persecution. - Jewish agents. - The Clovis Hugues affair. - A hearing of the Assize Court in 1885 - The apology for the assassination. - The new police. - Custodes ipsos quis custodiet? - The Paris of Ignotus. - The innocent before the courts. - The Freemasonry and Jewish magistracy. - Some types of magistrates. - Beyne. - The loves of a section president at the Council of State. - The priest hunt. - The death of Curé Frairot. - The Israelite Archives and Bishop Howard. - Our poor brothers. - The Saint-Elme affair. - Two deputies convicted of concussion. - Have you finished ? - The suffering of the humble. - A masterpiece to do. - Outrages from below. - A confessor of the faith under the Terror. - Freycinet. - The persecution in the hospital. - Lay nurses. - Quentin. - Doctor Després. - The Sisters of Charity and cholera. - Patients who run away. - A municipal councilor who is afraid of the Prussians but who does not back down from the Sisters. - Conclusion.

Récupérée de

« https://fr.wikisource.org/w/index.php?title=La_France_juive/Table_des_matières&oldid=9573667 »

Last edited 2 years ago by Wuyouyuan

Content is available under the CC BY-SA 3.0 license unless otherwise noted.